A photograph of Bill Paulshock inside his seafood business, Bill's Seafood. He is standing behind a counter, looking at a menu or document. The interior is brightly lit, showing a kitchen area with a white refrigerator and various signs. The exterior of the building is dark wood siding with a brick base.

“30 years ago I started my business, Bill’s Seafood, out of the back of my truck. I didn’t have anything but a good idea and the ability to work hard. We now have a permanent, thriving business next door to the house I grew up in, and I’m so proud to be able to operate in the community I love.”

– Bill Paulshock

This country was founded on the idea that if you work hard and have the support of your community, you're capable of achieving anything.

Building my small business from scratch is one of my greatest achievements, which is why I want to make it easier for others to do the same.

I started selling seafood out of the back of my truck. Luckily, my customers recognized that good things could come in unusual packages. Slowly but surely, we won patrons over with our fresh seafood and strong customer service. We now have a permanent store in Perry Hall, behind the house I grew up in.

Since day one, this community has been there for Bill's Seafood, and I've worked hard to try to be there for this community

We need to make it easier for more people to be able to follow their own dreams by leveling the playing field for everyone.

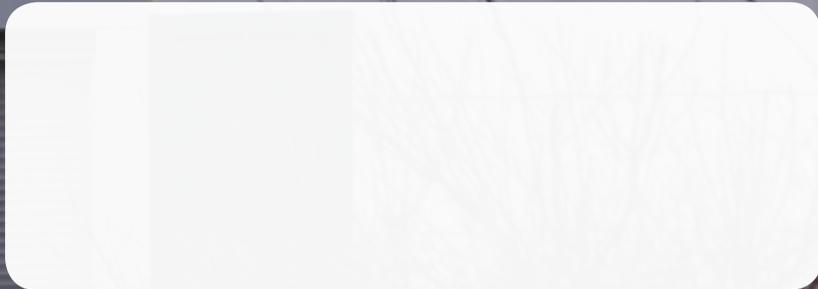

The Democratic Primary is this Tuesday, the 24th. I respectfully ask for your vote.

Bill Paulshock

for Delegate
District 8

My family has lived in Perry Hall for more than 100 years. This community is a part of who I am, and I hope I've been a positive part of this community.

I want to give back to District 8 the same way it's given back to me.

“Being a small business owner isn't always easy, but I love my life's work. In Annapolis, my focus will be on nurturing other small businesses in our area, as they are the backbone of a strong local economy.”
